THE WEATHER

Conditions.

During Monday night a severe disturbance developed over the south Atlantic coast and during Tuesday moved with great rapidity to eastern Maine and tonight the barometer at Eastport read 28.16 inches. This disturbance was accompanied by general rains over the south Atlantic states and snow and rains over the middle Atlantic states and New England and by gales along the entire Atlantic coast.
The eastward movement of the northwest high area will bring a continuance of the cold period for several days in the east with a further fall in temperature during Wednesday.

There will be snow Wednesday in northern portions of New York and New England, followed by generally fair weather Thursday.
Storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast from Hatteras to Eastport.
The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be westerly gales Wednesday and snow, diminishing Wednesday night with clearing weather; middle Atlantic, westerly gales Wednesday, diminishing Wednesday night, colder and fair.
Severe storm off northeast Maine coast moving rapidly northeast.
Storm warnings displayed from Hatteras to Eastport.

Forecast.

Southern New England: Fair, cold on Wednesday; Thursday fair; continued cold.
Eastern New York: Local rains on Wednesday except fair extreme south; colder; Thursday fair, continued cold.
Northern New England: Snow and colder Wednesday; Thursday fair.

Forty Hours Devotion Closes at St.
Mary's Church—Ladies' Aid of Federated Church Meets—Personals and Notes.

The 8 o'clock solemn high mass on Tuesday morning was the closing of the forty hours devotion of St. Mary's church, which has been going on since Sunday. The day's services were made up of three masses and a large number received holy communion at each mass.

The solemn high mass at 8 o'clock, which was sung by Rev. J. H. Fitzmaurice, assisted by the celebrant, Rev. Philip B. Massicot of Taftville, deacon, Rev. William Kennedy of Taftville, and Rev. William Kennedy of Taftville. The choir rendered the music for the mass as well as for the professional which was the music of the closing of the devotion. The professional which was composed of boys and girls, and the body which was in the line of march last Sunday. The girls scattered flowers over the course.

The pastor, Rev. J. H. Fitzmaurice, said that he was greatly pleased with the attendance at the devotion, as over 1200 received holy communion during the period.

The visiting priests who assisted Revs. John H. Fitzmaurice and William Kennedy in the devotion were

TOWN SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEETS

Lengthy Session Held at Home of Chairman Bishop—Two Teachers Tender Their Resignations—Janitor Appointed for Hobart Avenue School.

At a lengthy session of the town school committee held on Tuesday evening at the home of B. P. Bishop on Broadway, Miss Theresa Coughlin, eighth grade teacher at the Mt. Pleasant street school, and Miss Anna Park of the Yantic school, tendered their resignations. The meeting though lengthy was very harmonious in every respect and it proved to be a most beneficial session.

Preceding the business session the entire school committee with the school officials sat down to an excellent dinner at 6.30 o'clock.

The business session was called to order by Chairman Bishop. The resignation of Miss Theresa Coughlin, who is teacher in the eighth grade at the Mt. Pleasant street school, was read and accepted. Also Miss Anna Park, teacher at the Yantic school, tendered her resignation. Miss Leonora Rose was appointed to take Miss Park's place, while a substitute will take Miss Coughlin's place. The appointment will be made later.

John McNaught was appointed janitor at the Hobart avenue school.
Robert McNeely, chairman of the committee on care of school property, reported, and Herbert M. Lerou, chairman of the supplies committee, also gave reports.

Superintendent Graham gave a lengthy report on educational matters and suggestions that might be followed in the town schools of Norwich.
Supervisor Stanton, McNamara and Newson gave brief talks pertaining to matters of interest in school work.
Following there was a general discussion which lasted until a late hour.

The school committee comprises B.
P. Bishop, chairman, T. J. Kelly, H. M.
Lerou, C. O. Murphy, Robert McNeely, P. J. Cassidy, M. D. The school officials present were Supt. Edward J.
Graham, Supervisors J. E. Stanton, F.
L. Newton, F. P. McNamara and G. A.
Harvey.

December Session Took Place in the Church Parlors—Committees Appointed.

The Philathea class of the First Baptist church met in the church parlors Tuesday evening for its December meeting. Miss Elizabeth Park, Mrs. James Pastor, Mrs. Martin Farrell and Mrs. Fred Freeman were guests of the evening. Twenty-four members were present and a royal good time was had.

The president, Mrs. Frank B. Davis, presided, calling the meeting to order at 8 o'clock. The regular reports were read and approved, as were the minutes of the last meeting.

The class voted to send, as has been their custom for several years, baskets of Christmas cheer for the shut-ins and to assist in the Christmas work of the church.

The president appointed the committees for the year as follows: Entertainment, Mrs. J. O. Peckham, chairman, Mrs. Edward Maguire, Mrs.
Mary Deane, committees.

Mrs. Martin Farrell, Mrs. Henry Frink, Mrs. Harry Higgins, volunteer, Mrs. Robert Otis, flower committee, Mrs. Frank L. Davis, secretary.

At the close of the meeting a social time was enjoyed when all were invited to the dining room. The hostesses were Mrs. Frank B. Davis, Mrs. Frank L. Davis, Mrs. Harry Higgins, Mrs.
Robert Otis, Mrs. Edward Maguire, crackers, pickles, cake and coffee.

HIGGINBOTHAM VS. BRAGAW.
Jury Case Started in Common Pleas Court—Both Seeking Damages.

Before Judge Charles R. Waller and a jury the case of John Higginbotham of New London vs. Isaac Bragaw of Hartford for damages resulting from an automobile accident on May 8 in New London was started Tuesday morning.

The accident happened at the corner of Bank and Howard streets when automobiles owned by the plaintiff and defendant came together. Each claims that the other is responsible for the accident and the plaintiff asks for $400 damages and the defendant enters a counter claim.

William Edward Coleman, an automobile driver, who saw the accident, was the first witness and he was followed by Rev. and Mrs. Charles R.
McNally. A map of the scene where the accident occurred was explained by George K. Crandall, Roy R. Palmer was also on the stand.

Both the plaintiff and the defendant explained their side of the story. The court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.
